

Phil Cornwell Biog

Phil has completed work on the BBC's 'Dead Ringers'- his seventh series with the show and has recently appeared on Five's 'The Wright Stuff' and BBC's 'Weakest Link Special' and the Sunday magazine show 'Something for the Weekend'. He is also a regular contributor on TalkSport Radio and The Day The Music Died on R2 as well as being a regular on the Fanbanta football website and the soon to air accompanying C4 TV show. He also hosts The Phil Cornwell Spurs Show- a weekly podcast that is consistently the most downloaded football club podcast on iTunes.

Phil is most infamous for his award winning comedy show 'Stella Street' with John Sessions, which ran for 4 series on the BBC and spawned a feature length film, which has just been re-released on DVD.

He probably first came to prominence as a regular on The Steve Wright Show and the kids TV show 'Get Fresh' where he voiced the puppet 'Gilbert the Alien'. This led to his own show 'Gilbert's Fridge'.

Other regular appearances include The Comic Strip Presents and a host of TV and radio comedy shows.

Phil is a much sought after voice over artist as well as being in much demand on the corporate and after dinner circuit.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=oIot-vgqJBA>