

THE CAROLINE MABEY STORY

Standing up to comedy for comedians everywhere.

One of the most inventive comic voices in Britain, Caroline Mabey is a fringe and circuit favourite, appearing at festivals, theatres and clubs all around the country. Silly, warm and sharp as hell, she always creates a gag-packed frenzy of fun. She is a brilliant and accomplished MC, having been resident compere at the 99 Club for ten years.

'Mabey is thoroughly enjoyable company...the slightly deranged offspring of a menage a trois between Vic Reeves, Harry Hill and Floella Benjamin'
Evening Standard

'A mischievous, kooky talent'
Time Out

'Fabulous off-the-wall lines...will endure in the memory long after you've forgotten every word from the big-name stand-ups'
Chortle

'No-one has made us laugh as much at this Fringe'
The Skinny

Caroline has recently appeared on Comedy Central as part of their Performance Anxiety campaign, and in Before the Morning After on NBC's Digital Comedy Channel, Seeso. She also features in Josh Howie's Losing It (Series 1 and 2) on BBC Radio 4 and has written for Radio 4's News Quiz.

She has supported Hal Cruttenden on tour and has five solo Edinburgh shows to her name. She is one half of double act the Two Stupids with Michael Legge, and co-hosts the popular Self-Renovators podcast:

'Funny and touching and brilliant'
The Guardian
