

Brandon Block

Brandon is probably the most entertaining DJ and personality you'll ever find. He is best known for his uplifting party house music behind the decks, and his infamous havoc causing antics on the other side of the turntables. Brandon's taste is eclectic and when it comes to pleasing the dance floor, he will play anything that will move the crowd. Be warned...be prepared, Brandon is always guaranteed to rock the party.

Brandon is no stranger to television having appeared in Celebrity Big Brother in 2017, 'Trust Me I'm a Holiday Rep' in 2009 as well as "Celebrity Fear Factor" (Sky One), "Celebrity Poker" and 'Poker Challenge' (Flextech) and Channel 4's documentary series, 'Extreme Celebrity Detox' and numerous music based shows. Brandon has previously presented "Off Your Med" (MTV), "The Dogs Balearics" (C4), "Brandon Block's Brits" (Rapture), "MTV Europe Tour" - presenting and Dj-ing at BCM Majorca, Corfu, Mykanos and Ibiza (MTV 2000-2004), "The Brit Awards" (2001 and 2002) - interviewing behind the scenes (various), "Pacific TV" (Bravo), "Las Vegas, Party City" - documentary (C4/Sky) and he has been a guest on numerous programmes including 'Premier League All Stars (Sky One) "Never Mind The Buzzcocks" (BBC1), "Celebrating...The Bra" (Sky One), "TV's Greatest Moments" (ITV), "The Salon" (C4), "The Pop Years" (ITV), "Banzai" (C4), "Up Late With Ralph Little" (BBC3), "Jo Wiley" (C4) and he even starred in the film "Club La Monde", now out on DVD.

For radio, Brandon hosted a highly popular weekly show on Kiss 100 FM every Friday and Saturday night with his fellow reveller, Alex P - and released two successful compilation albums for 'Fantazia', an essential mix for Radio 1.

Brandon's Dj-ing career started back in '88 in the early days of the 'Acid House' explosion at a night called 'Zig Zag' at Broadway Boulevard in Ealing. His reputation grew quickly and, having established himself in the club scene in the South of England, he took his first trip to the Island of Ibiza in 1990, which has since become an annual pilgrimage, establishing Brandon as an essential part of the legacy of the island. Brandon has since established residencies all around the UK and has travelled internationally to places such as Hong Kong, Las Vegas, Dubai, Singapore, Thailand, Australia and Israel.
